

Job Role	Intern
Reports To	Project Lead/ Sr. Project Lead/ Manager
Division	Research & Development
Department	EDP

Basic Function:

Performs development, testing, documentation and analysis of various software applications to technical specifications, complying with established methodologies. Utilizes creative abilities to enhance existing product lines with new capabilities and features. Performs well-defined application development tasks of a moderate degree of complexity, focusing on product enhancements and develop solutions for new and existing features.

Essential Functions:

- Responsible coding, unit testing and documentation of software components and features.
- Build Automation Testing Suite for UI and API.
- Work with the software engineering team to meet deliverables.
- Receive instructions and guidance from mentor regarding required tasks and expected results.
- Fully embedded in fast pace software agile development teams. Participate in sprint planning, demos and daily scrum activities.
- Strong analytic and problem solving skills.
- Works in a team environment.
- Provides other ad hoc support and duties as assigned.
- Reports on progress on daily basis or as required.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.

Qualification/Requirements:

-

Required Skills:

- Core Java, J2EE, Spring MVC and SpringBoot, Spring Data, Spring Cloud, PostGreSql, Maven, Junit, TestNG, Jacoco, Kafka, AWS